

BREADLINE

MISSION STATEMENT

BREADLINE is a Christian charity which works alongside Christians in Eastern Europe and the FSU as they seek to embody the life of Jesus Christ in their local communities through word and action .

WE AIM

To serve

Churches

which are committed to advancing the Kingdom of God through the Gospel of Christ and who also have a desire to express His love for all people in practical ways which aim to transform the quality of their lives

To be

Christian communities which are living proof of God's mission - through His Son Jesus Christ and the power of the Holy Spirit - to create a world of just loving relationships

By

Providing

them with the necessary guidance and resources to develop the organisation, expertise and skills which will enable them to be more effective in their mission

By

God's Grace

Enabling

them to understand the concept of sustainable community development and in so doing helping them to help communities help themselves

Through

A long term supportive relationship which respects our partners need to develop their ministry at a pace commensurate with their calling, gifts and the context of their culture

Through

Christian

witness, service to the poor and needy, church planting, and unconditional love, regardless of race, gender, faith, denomination or class

Building links of support between our partners and individual supporters, churches, Christian organisations, businesses and educational establishments in the West

The provision of expertise and guidance to train ministry teams, advise on ministry organisation, project planning, research, publicity, fundraising and the evaluation of projects

Encouraging

our partners to network, support and share their experience and gifts with other churches in Eastern Europe & the FSU which are learning to reach out in similar ways
